

St. Louis County Library News Release: October 13, 2009
Contact: Jennifer McBride, 314-994-3300 x2250 or jmcbride@slcl.org

Friday Night Knitting Club Author at SLCL

The St. Louis County Library Foundation is pleased to present #1 New York Times bestselling author Kate Jacobs for a discussion and signing of her latest installment in the popular Friday Night Knitting Club series “Knit the Season” on Tuesday, November 10, at 7:00 p.m. at Library Headquarters, 1640 S. Lindbergh Blvd.

The program is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase at the event from Borders. This event is co-sponsored by the Greater St. Louis Knitters’ Guild and the Kirkwood Knittery.

It’s the holiday season at the cozy Walker & Daughter yarn shop on Manhattan’s Upper West Side, and the women of the Friday Night Knitting Club are getting ready to stitch sweaters, bake and reunite with family and friends. We first met the lively, witty and devoted members of the club in Kate Jacobs’ “The Friday Night Knitting Club,” the hit bestseller that climbed to the top the New York Times bestseller list, where it stayed for over a year. It now has more than a million copies in print and a film in the works produced by and starring Julia Roberts.

Now, in “Knit the Season,” the third novel in the series, Jacobs’ millions of fans are invited to spend the holidays with the Friday Night Knitting Club in a story about family and friendship, food and craft, and the true spirit of the season.

Kate Jacobs was born in British Columbia, Canada, and moved to New York to pursue a Master’s Degree at New York University. As a journalist, Jacobs has worked as a staffer at Redbook, Working Woman, and Family Life, and was a freelance writer and editor at the website for Lifetime Television. The author of the #1 New York Times bestseller “The Friday Night Knitting Club,” “Knit Two,” and “Comfort Food,” Jacobs now lives in Los Angeles with her husband and their dog.

Program sites are accessible. Upon two weeks notice, accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities. Contact St. Louis County Library by phone 314-994-3300 or visit www.slcl.org.

###